Anti-War 'Witness'

Jailed for 3 Years

BOSTON, Sept. 26 (UPI) — A 21-year-old Jehovah's Witness, who said his religion prevented him from doing military service, was sentenced today to three years in prison for refusing to submit to induction into the armed forces.

Cleveland Smith of Boston's Roxbury section, said the Lord commanded all men to love their neighbors and thus he could not in good conscience enter the Army and assist in killing fellow humans.
